DEATH AND SICKNESS NOTICES: Notify Worthy Lecturer: SK. Thomas Todt (440) 799-0986

Hope everyone enjoyed the beautiful Memorial Day weekend we just celebrated. In addition to the picnics and BBQs, we hope you remembered the true meaning of the day, remembering our fallen veterans. It was a pleasure celebrating Mass at Calvery cemetery on Monday morning with Bishop Gries and Fr. O'Donnell with about 70 other people.

CHURCH FESTIVALS

The next 2 weekends we will be helping out at the St. Clare (June 2nd-4th) and the St. Francis (June 8th-11th) festivals. Please come and enjoy yourselves at the various games and food offerings with your families. Plan on helping out, as needed, for a few hours when you can. At St. Clare, we will do whatever is needed. At St. Francis, we will be running the 2 beer trucks the whole weekend, so if you can volunteer a few hours, it will be appreciated.

GREATER CLEVELAND CHAPTER EVENTS

The Chapter has its Lunch Club meeting on the 2nd Tuesday of every month. This month will be on June 13th from 2 - 4 PM at Fuji's Buffet at Snow & Broadview in Parma. The cost is $13 for all-you-can-eat.

The Chapter's annual Rainbow Camp for Special Ed. kids will be held on July 7th at St. Augustine's Church in Tremont. It is always a fun event to spend the day with the kids ,serving them lunch and playing various games. Jungle Terry is supposed to be there this year.
